Accidental Death and Dismemberment

Accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) protection is included with Basic and Option A insurance at no additional cost. Benefits are payable when you sustain accidental injuries and, within one year, you lose a limb or sight in one or both eyes resulting directly from those injuries. Under Basic insurance, the benefits are equal to one-half of your BIA for the loss of one limb or sight in one eye. Under Option A, payments are equal to one-half of those benefits for the loss of one limb or sight in one eye.

Option B - Additional

Basic Life qualifies you to elect Option B - Additional insurance in an amount equal to (1) one, (2) two, (3) three, (4) four, or (5) five times your annual basic pay after rounding to the next $1,000.

¹ A retiree may elect to keep the full amount of insurance in force but must continue to pay the full premium.

RETIREMENT AT AGE 65

Basic Life & Option A

Option A is free the month after you reach age 65 or retire (if later). It is free but reductions begin. Your Option A-standard coverage will reduce by 2% of the pre-retirement amount per month ($200.00) until it reaches 25% ($2500.00) of the pre-retirement amount.

Option B & C

At retirement, you will elect if you want Full Reduction or No Reduction for each multiple. For example, an employee who has three multiples can elect to have two multiples with Full Reduction and one multiple with No Reduction. "Mixed elections" are allowed.

Full Reduction — If you choose Full Reduction, coverage is free after you turn age 65 or retire (if later). Effective at the month after the month you become age 65 or retire (if later), the value of your Full Reduction Option B and C multiples will reduce by 2% of the pre-retirement amount per month for 50 months, at which time coverage on those multiples will end.

No Reduction — If you choose No Reduction, you continue to pay the premium for your age group for the No Reduction multiples for life or until you change your election on those multiples or you otherwise discontinue your coverage. If you choose No Reduction, you can change to Full Reduction at any time.

* Effective April 24, 1999, Option B and C coverage may be continued after retirement at per $1,000 rates indicated on the preceding page.

Note - Costs for continuing level coverage after retirement can become substantial.

Coverage

The regular premium for Basic insurance stops the month after you turn 65. If you elected 75% reduction, your Basic insurance is free once you are retired and reach 65.

If you elected 50% reduction or no reduction, there is an extra premium for this higher level of coverage. The extra premium starts as soon as you retire or become insured as a compensationer and continues even after the regular premium stops at age 65.

^{*} The applicable withholding for 50% reduction or no reduction will be withheld from your annuity for life (unless you cancel your coverage or change to 75% reduction).

Withholdings are based on your Basic Insurance Amount (BIA) at the time of your retirement. If you elected 50 % reduction, the withholdings do not change when the amount of insurance in force begins to reduce.

CIVIL SERVICE RETIREMENT SYSTEM

(CSRS)

Retirement

Retirement benefits are secured by the political commitment of the Federal government to honor its agreements with its retired employees, a commitment that can only be altered by a change in the law.

CSRS Offset was created in 1987 and generally applies to employees who had a break in federal service after 1983 that lasted longer than 1 year and had at least 5 years of civilian service as of January 1, 1987. It also applies to employees who were hired into a civilian job before 1984, but did not acquire retirement coverage until after 1984 and had at least 5 years of service as of January 1, 1987. The amount CSRS Offset employees pay for retirement is the same amount that CSRS employees pay, however it is reduced, or offset, by Social Security taxes (6.2 % of pay).

Retirement Annuities and Survivor Benefits

Under CSRS, provision can be made for continuing benefits to survivors in the event of the death of the retiree. If a CSRS retiree dies, recurring monthly payments may be made to the surviving spouse if the retiree chooses a survivor annuity option. There are three different survivor annuity options you can choose...

Full Survivor Annuity – 55% of your full pension Reduced Survivor Annuity – 55% of a portion of your pension No Survivor Annuity

Recurring monthly benefits may be made to the former spouse of a deceased retiree, if the retiree elected a reduced annuity to provide the benefit, or the benefit is payable under a court order.

Unmarried children who are dependent upon the retiree may receive recurring monthly benefits until they reach age 18, marry or die. Monthly survivor annuity payments for a child can continue after age 18, if the child is a full-time student attending a recognized school. Benefits can continue until age 22.

Eligibility to Retire

Benefits under CSRS are payable to workers at age 55 with 30 years of service, or at age 60 with 20 years of service, or at age 62 with 5 years of service. The amount of an employee's annuity depends primarily upon the "high-3" average pay and length of service. "High-3" average pay is the highest average annual pay produced by the employee's basic pay rates during any 3 consecutive years of service.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT SYSTEM (FERS)

Retirement

Almost all new Federal employees hired after December 31,1983 are automatically covered by FERS. Congress created the FERS in 1986, and it became effective on January 1, 1987. FERS is a retirement plan that provides benefits from three different sources: a Basic Benefit Plan, Social Security and the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP). Two of the three parts of FERS (Social Security and the TSP) can go with you to your next job if you leave the Federal Government before retirement. The Basic Benefit and Social Security parts of FERS require you to pay your share each pay period. Your agency withholds the cost of the Basic Benefit and Social Security from your pay as payroll deductions. Your agency pays its part too. Then, after you retire, you receive annuity payments each month for the rest of your life.

Eligibility to Retire

Eligibility is determined by your age and number of years of creditable service. There are four categories of benefits in the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) Basic Benefit Plan: Immediate, Early, Deferred, & Disability. An immediate retirement benefit is one that starts within 30 days from the date you stop working. The early retirement benefit is available in certain involuntary separation cases and in cases of voluntary separations during a major reorganization or reduction in force. If you leave Federal service before you meet the age and service requirements for an immediate retirement benefit, you may be eligible for deferred retirement benefits. To be eligible, you must have completed at least five years of creditable civilian service. You must have become disabled, while employed in a position subject to FERS, because of a disease or injury, for useful and efficient service in your current position. The disability must be expected to last at least one year.

Retirement Annuities and Survivor Benefits

Under FERS, provision can be made for continuing benefits to survivors in the event of the death of the retiree. If you are married and elect a survivor annuity when you retire, your annuity will be automatically computed to provide an annuity to your widow or widower unless you and your spouse state in writing that you do not wish your spouse to receive an annuity upon your death. If you select this option, your monthly income will be reduced. Upon your death, after retirement, the survivor will receive an annuity of 50% of your monthly income.

Reduced Benefits for Early Retirement

Workers are able to retire at the MRA with 10 years of service, with reductions of 5% for each year the worker is under age 62 at retirement. This option does not exist under CSRS. The computation formula for a FERS retirement benefit depends on the age of retirement, how many years of service, and the "high-3" average salary. The computation formula is: (1) if a retiree is under age 62 or has less than 20 years, then it is 1% x "high-3" average salary x years of service; (2) if a retiree is at least age 62 and has at least 20 years of service, then it is 1.1% x "high-3" average salary x years of service.

THRIFT SAVINGS PLAN

(TSP)

The Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) is a retirement savings and investment plan for Federal employees. Congress established the TSP in the Federal Employees' Retirement System Act of 1986. The purpose of the TSP is to provide retirement income through savings and tax-deferred benefits that many private corporations offer their employees. The TSP is similar to private sector 401(k) plans.

The TSP is administered by federal employees, who are also TSP participants, at the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board (FRTIB).

The Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board is an independent Government agency. The five members of the Board and the Executive Director are required by law to manage the TSP prudently and solely in the interest of the participants and their beneficiaries. The Employee Thrift Advisory Council is a statutorily created Advisory Committee comprising representatives of employee organizations, unions, and the uniformed services. The Council provides advice to the Board and the Executive Director on matters relating to the investment policies and administration of the TSP.

Money in the TSP and earnings on that money cannot be used for any purpose other than providing benefits to participants and their beneficiaries and paying TSP administrative expenses.

Employee Contributions

FERS Participants - You may contribute to TSP on a pay period basis, either in percentage of salary amounts or whole dollar amounts up to an annual dollar maximum. This limit, set by the IRS is $22,500 for 2023.

Once you are eligible, you will receive:

- Agency Automatic (1%) Contributions
- Agency Matching Contributions
- Immediate vesting in Agency Matching Contributions and vesting - generally in 3 years - in Agency Automatic (1%) Contributions

CSRS Participants - You may contribute on a pay period basis up to $22,500 annually (for 2023) to your TSP account. You do not receive any agency contributions.

Employer Matches

	FERS	CSRS
1%-3% of basic pay are matched	100%	0%
4%-5% of basic pay are matched	50%	0%
6% +	0%	0%

FERS - 1% automatic agency contribution.

Investment of TSP Accounts

There are 6 investment funds for TSP accounts, the G Fund, C Fund, F Fund, S Fund, I Fund, and the Lifecycle funds, L Fund. All employees may elect to invest any portion of their current account balances and/or future contributions between the funds in any way they choose. The assets of the G Fund are managed internally by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board. The assets of the F, C, S, and I Funds are managed by outside investment firms. The Board currently has contracts with Barclays Global Investors, a U.S.-based subsidiary of Barclays PLC (a publicly listed financial services company based in London, England) to manage the F, C, S, and I Fund assets. Barclays invests the assets of the F. C. S, and I Funds into combined trust funds, ill, which the assets of many tax-deferred employee benefit plans are combined and invested together. The F, C, S, and I Funds remain invested in Barclays funds regardless of the performance of the securities markets. The Barclays funds in which the F, C, S, and I Funds are invested are index funds, or passively managed funds, whose portfolios are based on the composition of a market index. The L Funds are invested in the 5 individual TSP funds based on professionally determined asset allocations. When investing in the funds, you will sign a statement that you understand that you are making an investment at your own risk. You will also not be protected by either the U.S. Government or the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board against investment loss in the funds, nor do they guarantee a return on your investment.

ThriftLine

The ThriftLine is an automated telephone service for participants which provides current account information 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The ThriftLine is 877-968-3778. You will need to know your PIN and Social Security number. Also accessible online through TSP website: www.tsp.gov. Set up on-line access in My Account to chat with a ThriftLine Representative.

You can use the ThriftLine for the following:

- Account balance (total you have in each fund)
- Interfund transfer request (You are allowed two interfund tranfers in a calender month.)
- Loan information (status of a loan)
- Status of a withdrawal
- Most recent rates of return on the C, F, G Funds.
- Change your Personal Identification Number (PIN).

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFIT

Federal Employees Who Are Covered

All Federal employees newly hired after December 31, 1983, are covered by Social Security, and will pay Social Security taxes. This also includes employees with previous Federal service (other than rehired annuitants) if their break in service was a year or longer.

Coverage by Social Security

The Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (OASDI) program, is a Federal program designed to protect the worker and his family against economic insecurity when the family's earnings are stopped or reduced because of the worker's disability, death, or retirement.

The program is financed through special taxes paid by workers, their employers, and self-employed people, rather than through general taxation. These taxes are based on earnings. Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance benefits are in turn based on the worker's average earnings under Social Security. Paid monthly, any one of the three kinds of benefits provided under the program means a significant and regular replacement for lost family income.

As a general rule, the amount of Social Security benefits you'll qualify to receive are based on a combination of your earnings which have been subject to Social Security tax and whether you have earned enough "credits" in your Social Security account.

We recommend that you check on your Social Security every three years. If there is an error you only have three years and three months to get it corrected.

Fully Insured

Being fully insured is a status achieved after a worker accumulates a specific number of "quarters of coverage" under the Social Security system. You will need 40 quarters to be fully insured for life. Therefore, an individual employed for at least 10 years in jobs covered by Social Security can normally assume that they are fully insured.

Full Benefits

In Social Security language, an individual's full (100%) old-age entitlement is referred to as their "Primary Insurance Account (PIA)". As a general rule, if you wait until reaching the age of 65 before applying for old-age benefits, the amount you receive is based on your full PIA entitlement. Note that the age at which full retirement benefits are payable will be gradually increased from age 65 to age 67 over the coming years. This will be accomplished by increasing the age for full benefits by two months per year for workers who will reach the age of 62 in the year 2000. So if you were born in 1938 or after, you will need to be 67 to receive full Social Security.

Estimating Social Security Benefits

Because computation methods are so complex, it's almost impossible for a person to accurately determine the exact amount of benefits they will qualify to receive at some future point-in-time. This is primarily because benefits can be computed in one of several ways and benefit entitlements are constantly changing.
